OPENING MOST AUSPICIOUS

BLUE BONNETS MEETING BEGINS UNDER HIGHLY PLEASING CONDITIONS.

Earl Gray, Governor-General of Canada, Graces Occa sion with His Presence-S. C. Hildreth's Zeus Scores in Stake Feature.

Montreal, Que., June 3.—Before a crowd that numbered close to 10,000 and under conditions that would be hard to improve upon, the spring season of racing in Montreal was ushered in this afternoon of racing in Montreal was ushered in this afternoon. The clubhouse enclosure was packed and the big lawns in front of the grandstand was a solid mass. The running of the first race was deferred notil the arrival of his Excellency, Earl Grey, the governor general.

S. C. Hildreth furnished two of the afternoon's winners in Little Pal and Zeus. The former proved an easy victor in the afternoon's feature, the Windsor Hotel Cup. a dash of a mile and an eighth, for three-year-olds. Zeus was a prolibitive favorite and won in a canter, eight lengths separating him from Cherish at the finish. Incidentally the Hildreth pair were the only favorites that scored during the afternoon. The western turfman, however, furnished two of the beaten choices in Dinna Ken and Shannon. The latter's showing in the inaugural Dash was a keen disappointment to those who witnessed this sprinter's good form at Woodbine. At no time during today's running was he a factor. Dinna Ken, which has been a flat failure as a fencer since his strival in Canada. Tailed to show the dash that he did at Pindico. The stiff brinsh jumps here are not to Dinna Ken's liking and he failered at every obstacle, finally unseating jockey W. Allen at the hinth jump. The winner of this race was furnished by Gwyn Tompkins in a good-looking four-year-old called The Prophet. Plate Glass, which is destined to go through the field shortly, beat a band of shifty sprinters in the Inaugural Dash.

The brief history of the Windsor Hotel Cup is as follows:

George Senn arrived from St. Louis this morning and Phil Hyams arrived from New York.
Al Weston came up from Toronto to witness the opening day's sport. He returned to Wodbine tonight to prepare the horses he has there for shipment to Hamilton. The division of the Clyde stable that Capt. William F. Presgrave has here will be shipped to Saratoga in a couple of weeks following the close of the meeting at Blue Bonnets. Dalbousie, Bel Air and Huntersfort, which were turned out at Mr. Clyde's farm at Salisbury, Md., will be taken up and shipped to Saratoga to be again put in training.
Guy Garner, who is doing the lightweight riding for August Belmont, will sail for France June 14 to ride the horses that Mr. Belmont will race in that country.

PROBABLE STARTERS IN LATONIA DERBY.

Cincinnati, O., June 3.—As the date approaches for the decision of the Latonia Derby, to be run next Saturday in connection with the opening of the Latonia meeting, the conviction grows that the race will be a notable contest from every standpoint. It is confidently expected that the field will be numerically strong as well as of surpassing quality. #### NOTES OF THE TURF.

Starter Cassidy has added to the schooling list at Churchill Downs King Olympian, La Cazadora and Kittery. He now has eight racers under the ban, the others being Helen Burnett, Ozana, Stick Pin, Ilma and Nan Fergison—none of which can start in an overnight race until Mr, Cassidy permits their rejustatement.

instatement.

W. H. Fizer is again galloping Pinkola and Boca Grande regularly at Churchill Downs, and both are training nicely. He expects to be able to race the pair at Latonia. The Latonia Derby winner of 1908 was an exceedingly sick horse several weeks ago, but is now once more in perfect health. His Latonia engagements are the Merchants' Stakes and Independence and Cincinnati Hotel handicaps.

Woodford Clay reports that his mare Flying Ship.

pendence and Cincinnati Hotel handicaps.

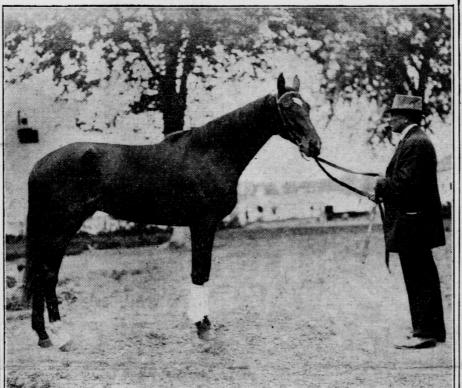

Woodford Clay reports that his mare Flying Ship, dam of Ocean Bound, has foaled this spring a handsome bay colt by Star Shoot. Mr. Clay has no yearling this season out of Flying Ship, she having been barren in 1910 and this is her first colt foal, all her previous produce having been fillies. Clay Brothers have decided to sell all their yearlings this season and will make no attempt to race any two-year-olds in 1912.

PROMINENT PEOPLE SEE LAGOON RACING

PROMINENT PEOPLE SEE LAGOON RACING.

Salt Lake City, Utah, June 3.—To see the decision of the best card ever offered patrons of racing in Utah, a crowd of fully 3,500 visited Lagoon Park today. It was a most representative crowd, including Governor Spry and other administrative officials of Utah, as well as many of the most prominent citizens of Salt Lake City and vicinity. The appearance of Meadow, W. McLemore's crack mare and easily the best racer at Juarez last winter, was the magnet which attracted lovers of the thoroughbred to the course. She was asked to concede much weight to everything in the race, but despite the heavy impost she ruled a prohibitive favorite, It was for her to win. Lady Rankin and Sterlin, also from the McLemore stable, were other winners. E. G. Soule joined the ranks of the layers today. The large crowd present gave the layers all the business they could conveniently handle.

RACING OF A PROMINENT LATONIA DERBY CANDIDATE

R. N. SMITH'S GOVERNOR GRAY, B. G, 3, BY GARRY HERRMANN-SALAMA.

Last year when he was a two-year-old Governor Gray at times ran like a really high-class young horse. At other times he most decidedly did not. Still, on the whole, he averaged fairly well and in his racing this year has scored to his credit some performances of sterling worth. His debut in racing was in a four and a half furlongs dash at Louisville, May 19, 1910, in which he finished unplaced to La U Mexican, Jack Demana and Incision. He was more successful in his next start, May 31, winning a purse at the same distance by a head and a neck from Cisko, Crex and eleven more youngsters in 54%. June 4 he ran next to last in a race over a muddy track, Labold winning, with James Mc second and Danceaway third. Then he was taken to Latonia and ran up to his private reputation. June 16 he won a purse race at five-eighths of a mile by six lengths in 1:00%, with Labold second and Jack Demann third. Two days later he finished second to McIvor in the Harold Stakes and should have won. He was unlucky and hampered in the race and was only beaten a neck in a fast gaining finish. Bobby Boyer was third and the race was run in 1:00%, him others finishing unplaced. June 22 he won a purse at five-eighths from Lady Ormicant, Pennyroyal and seven more, showing great speed and running the distance in 59, a new track record. June 30 he won a parse at five and a half furlongs in 1:06%, defeating Oracle, Lochiel and five more youngsters. Next he won the chief race of his two-year-old career. This was the rich Cincinnati Trophy, run July 2. He won easily by a length and a half from Labold, which beat Golden Egg the same distance. Nine ran unplaced and the time for the five and a half furlongs of the race was 1:06%.

He was now saved for a fall campaign and at Lexington, September 27, ran third to Shooting Spray and his stablemate, County Tax, in the Idle Hour Farm Handicap, at three-quarters. The track was slow and the time for the five and a half furlongs of the race was 1:06%. December 5, and second to Via length. That was his last su

His first start as a three-year-old was in a purse at six, and a haif furlongs. This he won in good style from Special Brew, Judge Monck and four others in 1:20%, a new track record. This race occurred February 7 and seemed to show he was in good form. This he confirmed a week later by running the fast mare. Melisande, to a head at three-quarters in 1:12%, with such a good horse as Hambridge third. February 17 Via Octavia gave him ten pounds and a neck defeat at three-quarters in 1:13%. Of course he was a great ravorite at odds-on. Then he ran fourth to Lahore, Dr. Duenner and Star Charter in the Ponce de Leon Handicap, for three-year-olds, at a mile. Lahore carried 119 pounds to his 113 and ran the mile in 1:40. March 4 he won a purse at three-quarters in 1:13, defeating McIvor, Imprint and three more, but was badly beaten at a mile and a sixteenth, March 7, by Aldrian, Aylmer and Desconnets. March 14 he finished third to Countless and White Wool, at a mile and a sixteenth, run in 1:47%? Four days later he won from Ella Bryson by a neck at three-quarters in 1:123%, with Jim L. third. At a mile and a sixteenth, March 25, Console beat him a length in 1:47%, with Aylmer a-good third. All of this racing at Jacksonville, good, bad and indifferent, hardly suggested his winning the misnamed American Derby. But he was taken there and trained in racing with that particular event in view and when it came up for decision April 1 took up his weight and won like a good race horse. Star Charter and The Nigger were the betting choices, but at the end of a mile and a quarter, covered in 2:04%, Governor Gray was first by a half length better than The Nigger, with Messenger Boy a good third and Star Charter unplaced. He was brought north and his first race subsequently was when he triumphed over Meridian in the Blue Grass Stakes, at Lexington. May 10. Here he carried his full weight of 119 pounds and ran a mile and an eighth in 1:51%, a grand race anywhere. His subsequent defeat in the Kentucky Derby is of too recent occurrence

PRINCE GAL IS THE VICTOR

G. M. ODOM'S CONSISTENT RACER WINS FRANK FEHR STAKES AT LOUISVILLE.

Round the World, Grover Hughes, Bettie Sue and Messenger Boy Figure in Sensational Finish in Secondary Feature of Good Card.

I. Louisville, Ky., June 3.—Today's splendid racing offering attracted to Churchill Downs one of the largest Saturday crowds ever in attendance at the course. They were furnished with excellent entertainment, for all the races were well contested throughout with the winners in doubt until the last few strides. The Frank Fehr Stakes was the main feature, but the rest of the card, which included a race for gentlemen riders, was not lacking in interest. This contest was one of the best of its-kind ever run here and was marked by strenuous riding in the final furlong by Mesrs. Pearce and Dinkelspiel, astride Earl of Richmond and Alma Boy, respectively. The former won in the last stride and Alma Boy beat Robert Bruce, on which Mr. Stoner had the mount, by a length for second money. After the finish Mr. Dinkelspiel and Mr. Jeon, rider of Mike Jordan, fell of their mounts from exhaustion. The successful rider was given a big reception for his skillful handling of his mount and was also the recipient of a massive silver cup from the association. Today's victory marked the third triumph that Mr. Pearce has achieved at the Downs in races for gentlemen riders. G. M. Odom's Prince Gal furnished the surprise in the Frank Fehr Stakes by finishing first, with White Wool and Ozana second and third. Ozana, Wintergreen and Angelus were the favored ones in the setting, but failed their backers badly. Prince Gal showed high speed for the entire distance and stayed better than expected in the final drive. Angelus might have done better but for having suffered sharp interference on the first turn. The second race, which engaged three-year-olds, among them a quartet of Latonia Derby eligibles, Round the World, Starry Night, Any Port and Messenger Boy, furnished the spectators with thrills and gave the backers of Round the World, the oddson favorite, considerable concern before the judges displayed the numbers of the placed three. Round the World closest to him and the rest of the field well string out. In the stretch Grover Hughes an stay with Worth at any stage of the race and succumbed readily to Working Lad in the final drive.

The big operators were given a jolt in the fifth race, when Fashion Plate failed them badly and finished far back, while Raleigh P. D., Adams Express and Al Muller landed at the finish noses apart in the order named.

Donau, one of the starters in the race, exhibited his mean traits and probably is done as a serviceable racing tool. He raced with the leaders the first quarter, then absolutely refused to go further despite the urging of his rider.

G. W. Berry announced today that he had again changed his plans and that he will send all his horses to Salt Lake City tomorrow.

Mrs. N. B. Davis sold Warden to E. Reubel today. J. H. Nichols shipped all his racers to Latonia from Lexington.

FOALS AT ST. JAMES STUD.

Lexington, Ky., June 3.—The foaling season at Irving H. Wheateroft's St. James Stud is over and the net result is forty-one thoroughbred sucklings—twenty-four fillies and seventeen colts. Fourteen of these youngsters are by St. Savin, the son of St. Simon and Aboyne, by Hampton, that was brought by Mr. Wheateroft from England in the spring of 1910 and these are the first of his get in this country. They are a uniformly fine collection and it is the verdict of horsemen hereabouts who have seen the foals that St. Savin is a good breeder. Of the young St. Savins the half-brothers to Wool Sandals, Flying Squirrel and Marlborough and the half-sisters to Aristocracy, Kid and Grappie are most cancied by good judges. Six of the sucklings are by Cesarion and the brother to Carroll is the pick of them. Among the colts and fillies by other sires there are soome good looking individuals. Altogether they constitute the best collection of foals that Mr. Wheateroft has owned. The list, with the dates of foaling, is as follows:

GOVERNOR GRAY'S TRAINER CONFIDENT.

Cincinnati, O., June 3.—Capt. J. T. Williams, on arriving at Latonia recently with Governor Gray, expressed the utmost confidence that his charge would win the Latonia Derby and said that he would welcome the shipment of Meridian here from Montreal to contest the race with the son of Garry Herrmann and Salama. He declared that "no matter what has been said about the running of the Kentneky Derby, no one who saw the race can say that Governor Gray got a good ride. Bad racing luck and worse judgment cost him the race. He is a sure winner in this Derby and don't let anyone tell you anything else." he said to his interviewer. With Meridian a doubtful starter, Governor Gray has become the favorite for the Derby. It is thought here that Captain Williams has made a wise move in bringing the gelding to Latonia and getting him accustomed to running over the Kenton County track. It has a far different surface from that of Churchill Downs, which did not especially sulf Governor Gray.

There were arrivals at the Latonia track in addition to Captain Williams' string, T. L. Pearce came with four from Lexington, P. H. Jones and E. Cottrell brought three from Pimlico and F. M. Newman, coming from Louisville, brought three, Two local owners, F. Schrickel and F. C. Hazenfield, each have five horses in training at the track. The arrival of horses from Louisville will be a daily story next week, as it will take some days and a good many cars to move 1.000 horses here.

General Manager Hachmeister will be at the Latonia track on Sunday to see what will be left to doduring the last few days before the meeting. The clubbouse is now being refitted and new formiruter is the clonia track on Sunday to see what will be left to doduring the last few days before the meeting. tended and will accommodate a great many more than formerly.

There will be plenty of $2 mutuel machines in operation on Derby day. Last year fifteen machines were available and the management could not provide devices for the smaller denomination. This year there are twenty-one new machines, besides the old ones.

Winner—Ch. c, by Cunard—Tower of Candles (trained by S. C. Hildreth).

Went to post at 3:13. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. LITTLE PAL followed PUGGINS closely and, hanging on with great courage in the final drive, just lasted long enough to win. VESTIBULE was forced to work his way up on the outside and, finishing gamely, was slowly wearing the winner down. PUGGINS showed a good flash of speed in pacemaking and tired in the last sixteenth. YORKSHIRE BOY ran well and was in close quarters through the homestretch. SENEX inished well. CHERRY SEED showed speed, but tired.

ROUND THE WORLD, while losing ground on the turns, held on gamely in the final drive and got up to win in the last stride, GROVER HUGHES showed the most speed and set a fast pace, but lost by bearing out in the stretch. BETTIE SUE ran a good race and made a game finish. MESSENGER ROY proposed at the start and, closing a big gap in the stretch, would have won in a few strides more. JUDGE MONCK weat fairly well. KORMAK began slowly and moved up fast into forward contention, then tired in the stretch, STARRY NIGHT seemingly could not settle fully in her stride.

$2 mutuels paid. Louis Katz. field, $33.80 straight, $9.20 place, $4.70 show; Layminster, $5.60 place, $3.40 show; Short Order, $4.80 show.
Equivalent booking odds—Louis Katz. field, 1590 to 100 straight, 360 to 100 place, 135 to 100 show; Layminster, 180 to 100 place, 70 to 100 show; Short Order, 140 to 100 show; Winner—Br. c. by Buck Massie—Fair Fortune (trained by C. Bills).
Went to post at 6:05. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving: second and third the same. i.0UIS KATZ was well up from the start and gamely outstayed LAYMINSTER in the closing drive. The latter closed a big gap into the lead in the stretch, but tired in the final drive. SHOET ORDER, badly outpaced for the first half, had to go around the others and closed a big gap into a close third. DISCONTENT also moved up rapidly in the last quarter. FONT showed speed, but tired. NETHERMOST finished well up. FALCADA was knocked back after going a half mile. IDA MAY went fairly well. OTILO set the pace for the first half and quit badly.

4 Overweights—Short Order, 2 pounds; Discontent, 2.
